Women’s Regional Network (WRN) is a collective network of women within and beyond borders committed to strengthening the security of women and enhancing women’s leadership to take action in preventing conflict, building peace, and protecting women’s rights in South Asia and beyond.

What's Happening

Colorado Gives 2016

The WRN launched a holiday fundraiser to strengthen women’s active participation in South Asian peace negotiations titled “Global Women Peacemakers Must be at Negotiation Tables” for Colorado Gives Day 2016. This fundraiser will begin at midnight on December 6, 2016 and run until March 31, 2017 under the umbrella of our fiscal sponsor, the Colorado Nonprofit Development Center. Colorado Gives Day is an annual statewide movement to celebrate and increase philanthropy in Colorado. Please support our work, donate and share this fundraiser with your friends and family this 2016 giving season!

South Asia Regional Country Report Launches

Launches of the WRN’s latest Country Reports, which focus on the horrific conditions internally displaced persons face as a result of conflict, are underway in Afghanistan, India, and Pakistan. Launches will be attended by civil society, activists, academics and policy makers in order to: bring attention to internal displacement issues, both nationally and regionally, and to shape policy/program design, implementation and durable solutions. The following publications will be featured at each launch:
